This website would be the website of a made-up pizza shop called Alex's Pizza. It would be a chain with multiple locations and a logo. The website would contain pictures, the menu, locations, normal pizza website stuff etc. People would be able to order and customize a pizza on the website. It would basically be a normal pizza shop website.

Home, Menu, About Us, Order, Locations, Contact Us

Data description:

Home: will be a basic home page

Menu: Will have photos and descriptions of every pizza flavor – Example – Meatlovers: (picture) Our meatlovers with ham, bacon, pepperoni, and salami

About Us: A paragraph about the "founder(s)", where I got my love for pizza

Order: Would be a full menu; appetizers, sides, pizzas, create your own

Locations: Locations, addresses, and phone numbers for all our locations

Contact Us: Email and phone number

Website name: phillysportsdb

This website would be a sort of database for the Philadelphia Eagles and Philadelphia 76ers. It would be a hub for the two teams with stats, schedules, player pages with stats and other information. Anyone interested could go on and look at any time. It would be all things Eagles and Sixers.
